

"The mission of the New Hartford Economic Development Commission is to augment the growth of existing and future business and professional organizations creating an improved quality of life for New Hartford Residents. The EDC will provide resources, information, and advice on what services and events are available to sustain growth. The New Hartford EDC will also work with other town commissions and entities to improve the business environment to further economic stability, growth, and diversification."